*Nonprofit Leadership Connections @ Michigan

Monday, October 8, 4:30 p.m., Rm. 3816 School of Social Work Bldg.

The Nonprofit & Public Management Center welcomes Ross/Ford/Social Work graduate students coming from nonprofit industry backgrounds and working towards nonprofit careers to engage in dialogue about nonprofit study at Michigan and future career challenges and options. Students with an interest in nonprofit study and careers will have a chance to introduce themselves, their nonprofit histories, their aspirations for study at Michigan, and future aspirations. All students present will have the chance to contribute to NPM's 07-08 programming by engaging in discussion around our common pursuits at Michigan, and the issues we're facing in the advancement of our careers. Facilitated by the NPM's Student Advisory Board. Pizza served!

How to Start a Nonprofit Organization

*Third Annual Funding Resources Face to Face

Thursday and Friday, October 4&5, Detroit, Michigan

The Detroit office of Senator Carl Levin has joined with the Michigan Nonprofit Association, the Council for Michigan Foundations and several other organizations to sponsor a two-day grant writing and funding resource workshop for nonprofit organizations on October 4-5, 2007, at Greater Grace Temple in Detroit.

The first day of the workshop, Funding Resources Face to Face, will feature an overview of the federal government appropriations process and a look at the current private funding landscape. Breakout sessions on grant writing skills and resources, program design and budgeting, foundation research and other topics will take place in the morning and afternoon. The second day will include roundtable sessions with representatives from private foundations and federal government agencies. Both days will feature a networking luncheon for participants.
